

Anti-vibration cable tray manufacturers

AI Overview

Leading manufacturers of anti-vibration cable trays include Shandong Hongfeng, Shanghai Hdmann, Wuxi Dongyide, and Ningbo Vich, offering solutions for industrial, marine, and data center applications. Key Manufacturers and Products

Shandong Hongfeng Import and Export Co., Ltd. is a major Chinese manufacturer specializing in anti-vibration perforated cable trays. Their products include wire mesh, trough, trapezoidal, large-span, and composite cable trays, made from stainless steel and aluminum. These trays are designed for strong earthquake resistance, reducing the impact of external forces on cables, and are suitable for communication, factory construction, solar, and thermal power applications. The company holds ISO 9001, SGS, and CE certifications.

Shanghai Hdmann produces FRP ladder trays that are vibration-resistant and corrosion-resistant, validated by Fortune 500 clients. These are ideal for heavy industrial environments with high vibration levels.

Wuxi Dongyide offers PVC cable trays with excellent fire resistance and vibration damping, particularly suitable for sensitive data center applications.

Ningbo Vich manufactures FRP trays engineered for harsh marine environments, providing durability and corrosion resistance in challenging conditions.

Additional Suppliers

Schiavetti Tekno (Spina Group, Italy) provides stainless steel, galvanized, and wire cable trays, including perforated and closed-bottom types. While not explicitly labeled as anti-vibration, their perforated trays allow for cable ventilation and secure fixing, which can reduce vibration effects in industrial settings.

ABB offers a range of cable tray systems, including perforated trays, ladders, and channel trays, suitable for industrial installations.

Eurostrut supplies industrial and marine cable trays, including NATO-type models, which can be customized for vibration-sensitive applications.

Considerations for Selection

Material: Stainless steel, aluminum, FRP, and PVC offer different levels of corrosion resistance and vibration damping.
