

Corrosion-resistant composite trough-type cable tray

Overview

Epoxy resin composite cable tray combines an inner metal skeleton with an outer FRP body. The metal core increases mechanical strength and allows long spans and heavy loads, while the FRP shell provides excellent corrosion resistance and electrical insulation. GRP trays offer low installation costs, and non-conductive and lightweight properties, making fibreglass cable trays the most effective solution available for a. Lightweight yet robust and resistant to corrosion, fiberglass ladder tray often outperforms galvanized or stainless steel over the life cycle. Made from the highest quality pultruded materials, our Fiber Reinforced Polymer (FRP) cable tray is extremely durable and resistant to chemical attack, with a proven record of. Our Cable Tray provide reliable cable support in the most corrosive applications. Both Polyester & Vinyl ester resin systems are available. Can they carry heavy power cables?

Yes, when selected using span and load charts appropriate to cable weight. Are they suitable for outdoor routing?

Yes.
