Overview of Suppliers and Options

Several companies in Moldova offer customizable cable trays, including galvanized steel and modular designs. Brilltech Engineers Pvt. Other suppliers, such as Micro Sheet Crafts and Jeetmull Jaichandlall, also provide customized cable trays with options for different dimensions, load capacities, and finishes.

Factors Affecting Price

Material Type: Galvanized steel is common and cost-effective, offering durability and corrosion resistance, while aluminum trays may be slightly more expensive but lighter.

Customization: Custom dimensions, modular designs, and special coatings can increase the price.
