

Price and dimensions of exhaust pipes for electrical distribution boxes

AI Overview

Exhaust pipes for electrical distribution boxes typically use 20mm or 25mm conduit pipes, with prices ranging from $0.50 to $1.50 per meter depending on material and customization.

Dimensions
Standard Sizes: Common conduit pipes used for electrical distribution boxes are 20mm and 25mm in diameter.
Length: Pipes can be supplied in custom lengths according to project requirements, often ranging from 1 meter to several meters.
Material: Most pipes are made of durable PVC or PC plastic, offering lightweight, corrosion-resistant, and weatherproof properties suitable for indoor and outdoor installations.
Compatibility: These pipes are compatible with junction boxes and distribution boxes such as the EKDB10 series, which are available in single, double, or triple layers and meet IP65 waterproof standards.

Pricing
PVC Conduit Pipes: Standard 20mm or 25mm PVC pipes typically cost $0.50–$1.00 per meter, depending on thickness and supplier.
Couplings and Accessories: Plastic couplings for connecting pipes are priced around $0.20–$0.50 per piece.
Distribution Boxes: For reference, IP65 waterproof distribution boxes like the EKDB10 series vary in price based on the number of ways (4–39 ways) and layers, generally ranging from $20 to $150 per unit.

Additional Considerations
Customization: Many suppliers offer custom lengths and flexible pipe options to fit specific installation requirements.
Standards Compliance: Ensure that both the pipes and distribution boxes comply with IEC standards for electrical safety and protection.
Installation: Proper installation is critical to maintain waterproofing and electrical safety, especially for outdoor or industrial applications. By selecting the appropriate pipe diameter, material, and length, and pairing it with a compatible distribution box, you can ensure safe and efficient routing of electrical wiring while maintaining compliance with international...
