

Price of Fiber Optic Signal Attenuators

AI Overview

Fiber optic attenuators typically range from around $5 to $50, depending on type, connector style, and attenuation level. Overview of Pricing Fiber optic attenuators are available in fixed and variable types, with attenuation levels ranging from 0 to 60 dB . Prices vary based on factors such as connector type (LC, SC, FC, ST, MU, UPC/APC), single-mode vs multimode, and brand or quality . Basic fixed attenuators for standard applications often start at $5-$10, while higher-precision or variable attenuators can cost $20-$50 or more . Factors Affecting Price

Type of Attenuator: Fixed attenuators are generally cheaper than variable ones. Variable attenuators, which allow adjustable signal reduction, are more expensive due to their precision components .

Connector Style: Common connectors like LC/UPC or SC/UPC are widely available and moderately priced, while specialized connectors or APC types may increase cost .

Attenuation Range: Higher attenuation levels (e.g., 40-60 dB) or wide-range variable attenuators tend to be more expensive than low-range fixed attenuators .

Brand and Quality: Reputable brands or industrial-grade attenuators with guaranteed stability and low insertion loss may command higher prices .

Typical Retail Sources

DigiKey: Offers a wide selection of fiber optic attenuators with same-day shipping and pricing starting from low-cost fixed types .

FS.com: Provides fixed and variable attenuators with guaranteed stable attenuation, suitable for WDM transmission, generally in the $10-$50 range .
