

Price of horizontal left-bottom tee for cable trays

AI Overview

The price of horizontal tee cable tray fittings typically starts around ₹120-₹150 per piece in India, with exact pricing depending on size, material, and supplier. Pricing Overview IndiaMART Suppliers: Horizontal cable tray tees are available from suppliers such as Parmar Metals Private Limited (starting at ₹120/meter), Ramdev Steel Industries (starting at ₹145/piece), and Global Manufacturers and Traders (starting at ₹150/piece) for standard sizes. Prices may vary based on material (e.g., stainless steel, galvanized steel), dimensions, and order quantity. International Suppliers: Companies like Platt Electric Supply and Power Utility Products Co offer horizontal tees in various sizes and materials, including SS304 brushed finish and NEMA-compliant designs. Pricing is typically available upon request or quote. Material and Specifications Materials: Common materials include stainless steel (SS304), galvanized steel, and aluminum. Dimensions: Standard tees often link three straight channel sections, with reducing or expanding variants available for different cable tray widths. Compatibility: Horizontal tees are designed to fit NEMA Class 1, 2, or 3 cable trays, with side rail flanges ranging from 1 1/8" to 2 3/8" and splice plates from 4 to 8 holes. How to Get Exact Pricing Contact suppliers directly via phone or email to request a quote for the left-bottom horizontal tee variant, specifying: Material type Dimensions (width, height) Quantity Delivery location Suppliers often provide bulk order discounts and shipping options. Key Considerations Ensure the tee matches your cable tray class and load requirements. Verify whether the tee is a standard, reducing, or expanding type to fit your installation. Consider future scalability and maintenance access when selecting the fitting. For precise pricing and availability, contacting suppliers like Parmar Metals, Ramdev Steel Industries, or international distributors s...
