

Southern European cable tray brands

AI Overview

Key Southern European cable tray brands include Spina Group (Italy), Legrand/Cablofil (France), and DKC Europe (Italy), offering high-quality, compliant solutions for industrial and infrastructure projects.

Leading Brands

Spina Group (Italy) Spina Group specializes in ladder and perforated cable trays, designed for heavy-duty applications in shipbuilding, petrochemical, and industrial plants. Their products are known for durability, customization options, and compliance with European standards, making them suitable for complex installations.

Legrand / Cablofil (France) Legrand offers the Cablofil brand, which focuses on wire mesh cable trays. These trays are lightweight, easy to install, and highly adaptable for various applications, including data centers, commercial buildings, and industrial facilities. Legrand emphasizes sustainability and long-term reliability.

DKC Europe (Italy) DKC Europe provides a comprehensive range of cable tray systems and energy distribution solutions for civil and industrial infrastructures. Their offerings include trays, support systems, and accessories, designed to meet rigorous European standards and ensure safe, efficient cable management.

Additional Considerations

Compliance: Southern European manufacturers adhere to EN 61537 and ISO 9001 standards, ensuring global compatibility and high-quality performance.

Materials: Products are available in steel, aluminum, PVC, and GRP, allowing selection based on environmental conditions and load requirements.

Applications: These brands cater to industrial plants, energy projects, infrastructure, shipbuilding, and data centers, offering solutions for both low and high voltage installations.

Summary For Southern Europe, Spina Group, Legrand/Cablofil, and DKC Europe are among the most recognized cable tray brands, providing durable, compliant, and versatile solutions for a wide range of industrial and commercial projects. Their products are designed to handle heavy loads, resist environmental challenges, and...
