

Theisle server has no AI

Overview

AI or Artificial Intelligence is a feature in The Isle which will enable the capability of a computer having the imitation of an actual dinosaur behavior which will make future hunting and Survival Mode harder or easier for players. All Legacy's AI are only playable in Sandbox. So, on the EQG Testing server and on smaller servers, I have admin on I've seen large amounts of AI. But on largely populated servers, there's hardly any AI. Lastly, with admin. Welcome to the NERF EU - LOW RULES - 1. 25x - STORAGE - HIGH AI server! This provides excellent connection speed and minimal latency for players in this region, which is especially. Did i miss a halloween pvp event, where no AI spawns on Land and players are forced to fight each other?

Played for roughly 10 hrs and i found 1 dead boar and killed 1 frog. Looking for the official subreddit?

Check out r/survivetheisle No Ai no nothing! What is this?

Okay ldk wtf is going on but I posted this. Before I used to die from starvation several times in a row, I followed the tips on line and then more, I stalked slowly and quietly, stalked running, stalked in the rivers, in the mountains, in the beaches, in the forest, in the jungle, in the swamps, everywhere, and couldn't find a single little. No AI Spawn? :: The Isle General Discussions

I've a few hours in the game under my belt and I can tell that, for whatever reason, AI has not been around much on official servers this last week.

Thank you devs for finally fixing the no AI bug!

I was just responding to people saying they starve because of no AI and wondered why they dont hunt other players. Being on a low pop server is a reasonable answer.

No Ai no nothing! What is this? : r/theisle

I've combed almost the entire map with a ptera for hours, on a few official and unofficial servers, just for science sake. Most AI spawns are near other players, which means Northeast, East, and South Plains.
