

UK electrical distribution box manufacturer

AI Overview

Distribution Zone and Rubber Box are UK-based manufacturers offering in-stock electrical distribution boxes suitable for industrial and entertainment applications. Distribution Zone manufactures a range of Powersafe Sequential Boxes and PowerBox Portable Rubber Brick Mini splitters, all made in the UK. Their products include: Powersafe 800A Powerlock Boxes with IP67 rating, available in Source or Drain versions. PowerBox Rubber Power Distribution Boxes with Siemens or Eaton breakers, IP44 or IP67 rated. CE & UKCA marked with a 12-month warranty. These units are designed for temporary electrical installations, including stage, film, and event setups, and can be linked for higher amperage requirements. Stock is available for immediate purchase. Rubber Box specializes in high-capacity, impact-resistant power distribution boxes for events, theatres, and broadcast facilities. Key offerings include: RUBTR3 Triangle Box: From a single 16A supply, it provides one 16A outlet and twelve 13A sockets, housed in an IP-rated rubber enclosure. Bespoke power distribution boxes built to customer specifications. In-stock availability with worldwide delivery options. These boxes are manufactured in the UK, fitted with German-engineered components, and protected by MCBs and RCBOs for safety. CEENORM offers IP65 electrical distribution enclosures manufactured by IDE, with sizes ranging from 4 MOD to 54 MOD. They also provide custom-built socket distribution units for industrial applications in the UK. Ordering and Delivery Both Distribution Zone and Rubber Box provide in-stock units ready for immediate dispatch, with options for bespoke configurations. Distribution Zone offers free delivery on orders over £100 within the UK. These manufacturers provide reliable, UK-made solutions for industrial, entertainment, and event power distribution.
